POLICY

- 3.1 Aggressive client behavior should be managed clinically in a manner that maximizes safety for everyone, respect for the client, and recognition of the therapeutic mission of our services.
- 3.2 Staff in settings that are not LPS Designated may not use mechanical restraints or involuntary seclusion to clinically manage aggressive client behavior.
 - 3.2.1 In situations in which there is immediate risk to life, staff may intervene as necessary in order to mitigate that risk, including calling 911 for emergency assistance.
- 3.3 While the following procedures apply to adults, clients under the age of 18 should also be managed without mechanical restraints or involuntary seclusion, but in accordance with recognized responsibilities to act in specific situations as may be required in order to protect children from harm.

PROCEDURE

- 4.1 Staff shall identify the potential for the aggressive client behavior on the basis of observation, assessment and known history:
 - 4.1.1 In instances where staff determine that the potential for such behavior exists, staff shall immediately notify those at immediate risk of harm and their immediate supervisor and request staff support as indicated.
- 4.2 Staff shall use codes and alarm procedures identified in the LACDMH Injury and Illness Prevention Plan (IIPP), Section VIII, Clinic and Field Safety, Sub-sections 10-12 (Reference 1). These codes and alarms shall be utilized to request the assistance of staff, including the assistance of Sheriff's Security Officers (SSOs), Contracted Security Guards (CSGs), and local law enforcement if necessary, to manage situations of aggressive client behavior.
